Do not be Anxious about anything. Philippians 4:6

Anxiety should never be found in a believer. In spite of the magnitude, quantity, and diversity of our trials, afflictions, and difficulties, anxiety should not exist under any circumstances. This is because we have a Father in heaven who is almighty, who loves His children as He loves His “one and only Son” (John 3:16), and whose complete joy and delight it is to continually assist them under all circumstances. We should heed His Word, which says, “Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present you requests to God.”

“In every situation” – not simply when our house is on fire or when our beloved spouse and children are gravely ill, but even in the smallest matters of life. We are to take everything to God—little things, very little things, even what the world calls trivial things. Yes, we are to take everything, living all day long in holy fellowship with our heavenly Father and our precious Lord Jesus. We should develop something of a spiritual instinct, causing us to immediately turn to God when a concern keeps us awake at night. During those sleepless nights, we should speak to Him, bringing our various concerns before Him, no matter how small they may be. Also speak to the Lord about any trial you are facing or any difficulties you may have in your family or professional life.

“By prayer and petition”—earnestly pleading, persevering and enduring, and waiting, waiting, waiting on God.

“With thanksgiving”—always laying a good foundation. Even if we have no possessions, there is one thing for which we can always be thankful—that He has saved us from hell. We can also give thanks that He has all given us His Holy Word, His Holy Spirit, and the most precious gift of all—His Son. Therefore when we consider all this, we have abundant reasons for thanksgiving. May this be our goal!

“And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus” (Philippians 4:7).

May we take these truths to heart, instinctively walking in them, so the result will be lives that glorify God more abundantly than ever before.

Search your heart several times a day, and if you find something that is disturbing your peace, remember to take the proper steps to restore the calm.

Hurricane Helene: Trinity Luther Church in East Flat Rock N.C was hit hard. The basement flooded. No one was able to help so mold started to form. The water did disperse by itself but the damage was already done. We were concerned we would not be able to do any of the needed repairs. We reached out to LCMC headquarters and talked to Carol. We informed her of our situation and she put us in touch with Lutheran Disaster Assistance Fund Grant Application and Certification. A Grant application is in the process of being filled out. Our Insurance company was called. Unfortunately our insurance company was not able to help us. Since we called LCMC headquarters Carol received calls from other LCMC churches asking who needed help recovering from Helene? Carol told the churches that our church needed help. We also received calls from other denominations. The calls we have received, have offered to send money or help with labor. The calls are from all over the United States. This was a BIG prayer answered. Below are a few of the pictures from after the hurricane but doesn't really show the true extent of the damage and the mold that formed.

We continue to pray that we can get the help we need to repair our church's basement. Thanks to all the LCMC church's and the private citizens that have offered to help.

More updates to come in our November newsletter.
